MEDICINAL

What Is It?

A man who has been running a race with steam and electricity for years, finds himself suddenly stopped. It seems as if a cold hand clutched his heart. His brain whirls; he can hardly see. "What is it?" he asks himself as the attack passes. If his question meets a right answer, he'll be told that his seizure is a warning to pay more attention to his stomach, which is already deranged by irregular meals and rich foods.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It eliminates from the blood disease breeding poisons. It makes the blood rich and pure, and furnishes a foundation for sound, physical health.

"About ten years ago I began to have trouble with my stomach," writes Mr. Wm. Connolly, of 333 Walnut Street, Lorain, Ohio. "It got so bad that I had to lay off quite often--two and three days in a week. I have been treated by the best doctors in this city, but got no help. Some said I had cancer of the stomach, others said I had indigestion. Then I wrote to you for advice. You advised the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' These medicines I have taken as directed. I commenced to get better from the start, and have not lost a day since I began to use your stomach. I feel tip-top, and better than I have for ten years."

Keep the bowels healthy by using Dr. Pierce's Pellets. They don't gripe.

DEATH OF EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON.

Ex-President Benjamin Harrison died at his home in Indianapolis, Ind., at 4:45 o'clock yesterday evening, surrounded by the immediate members of the family and the physicians who have been in constant attendance on him since Monday evening. Those present in the room at the time were Mrs. Harrison, the daughter, Elizabeth, the general's two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Eaton, of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Morrison, of Indianapolis; ex-Attorney-General Miller and his wife, and two or three other friends. John Scott Harrison, a brother, whose home is in Kansas City, and the general's son, Col. Russell Harrison, did not reach the city until after his death. In the room below were a number of friends and neighbors.

Benjamin Harrison was the twenty-third President of the United States. He was born at North Bend, Ohio, August 20, 1833. He was a grandson of William Henry Harrison, ninth President of the United States and a great-grandson of Benjamin Harrison, signer of the Declaration of Independence. His father was a farmer. At the age of 15 he went to Farmers' College, College Hill, Ohio, and two years later to Miami University, at Oxford, Ohio. Here he met Caroline Scott, whom he married when he was 21. He studied law with Sorer and Gwynne at Cincinnati and was admitted to the bar in 1858. He moved to Indianapolis in 1854 and was elected reporter of the Supreme Court in 1860. In 1862 he enlisted in the 70th Indiana regiment and finally became its colonel. At Peachtree Creek Harrison saw the Confederates attack Hooker in an unlooked for place. Harrison's command was at the foot of a hill and without waiting for orders Harrison rushed his men to the top of the hill and met the Confederates so gallantly that they retreated. Hooker saw that he was made a brigadier general. In 1864 Harrison was re-elected reporter of the Supreme Court. From 1868, when he declined a re-nomination, to 1876 his career was non-political and was devoted to the practice of law in Indianapolis. In 1876 he was nominated by the republicans for governor and was defeated by James D. Williams. In 1879 he was appointed a member of the Mississippi River Commission. Two years later he was elected United States Senator from Indiana. In 1887 he was defeated for a second term in a democratic legislative election. In 1888 he was elected President, defeating Cleveland. Harrison returned to Indianapolis after the inauguration of Cleveland and devoted himself to literary and legal work. His most important work since leaving the presidency was the Venezuelan arbitration case in which he represented Venezuela at Paris. Harrison's first wife died shortly before the election of 1892. Four years later he married Mrs. Mary Scott Lord Dimmick, who with an infant daughter survives him. His children by his first wife are Col. Russell B. Harrison and Mrs. Mary Harrison McKee, of Saratoga, N. Y.

Gen. Harrison's wealth is variously estimated, public opinion rating it as high as $500,000. Those who are best informed about the ex-President's affairs, however, say he was worth about $250,000 or $300,000. At the time he was elected President he was reputed to have accumulated a fortune of $125,000 from his law practice, and this has been doubled, at least, since that time. Of late his practice, owing to his great reputation as a constitutional lawyer, was very lucrative. His fee in the Venezuelan boundary dispute, in which he represented the South American Republic, was $100,000.

The funeral of ex-President Harrison will take place next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services will be held in the First Presbyterian church, of which General Harrison had been a member for nearly fifty years. Rev. M. L. Haines, pastor of the church, will have charge of the services. President McKinley will attend the funeral.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children "I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Drying Preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all dry, irritating inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50 cents, or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for cough. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well-known remedy for whooping cough.
